While Army is Hastening to Mexican Border— Many Believe This Country's Complications in the Strife Presents Grave Situation Army Usurping Functions of State Department

El Paso, March 11.—Cassio Credo has surrendered his federal army and the Cassa Grandes to Madero's troops, after a passive resistance, according to couriers arriving today. They state there are 7000 armed rebels in the field and that Madero has issued concentration orders, intending to attack the city of Chihuahua.

Citizens of Juarez insist that the United States intends to eventually own everything north of the Panama canal.

TAFT SAYS MOBILIZATION WILL MEAN INTERVENTION.

Washington, March 11.—The army under Major General Wood has usurped the functions of the state department in regard to Mexico and the war department is going ahead as if certain of serious trouble on the frontier. Plans are made for the occupation of the border country for a year and on paper a second army division of 15,000 men is all ready to start for the front. A dozen telegrams would start this second division moving. State Secretary Knox and Acting Secretary Wilson are absent from Washington and the state department is practically ignorant of military movements.

Its agents kept minimizing the trouble in Mexico, while reports from other department agents described the situation as grave. This may account for the displacement of the diplomats. There is great incongruity in the stand taken by various officials. Taft says: "The mobilization is a forerunner of intervention unless foreign interests are protected."

Mexican Officials Lemantour and De La Barra: "Mexico" will not countenance intervention." Mexican rebel leaders: "The Diaz government is anxious for intervention, despite its statement." Mexican Foreign Minister Creel: "President Taft's word will tranquilize Mexican opinion."

President Diaz: "The press has amply explained the movement of U. S. troops."

The Japanese angle is another point causing brows to wrinkle here. President Taft's assertion at Atlanta, last night that the Japanese treaty was the important work of the last congress has given many statesmen here food for thought. A positive denial that any secret understanding existed between Japan and Mexico was issued by Limantour and also today, though he did not claim there was no understanding whatever. He said there was none "to cause an other nation to be alarmed."

Coincident with this comes a story that a Mexican physician visiting there has received a private letter from a friend traveling in Mexico. The letter says the Japanese have recently been arriving in Mexico in large numbers and between 50,000 and 60,000 are now in the west coast cities. Many of them are unemployed and have built small stockades at various points, ostensibly for game and social purposes, but the writer of the letter claims to have seen military drills going on within these stockades. He also says American secret service men are keeping a close watch on these.

BRITISH INTERESTS MUCH ALARMED OVER TROOP MOBILIZATION

London, March 11.—Local papers are still insisting that British influence caused the decision to mobilize the American army on the Texas border and business men here are in a panic lest the mobilization result in a broadening of American concession in Mexico to the detriment of British capital.

PRELIMINARY HEARING

Of Cause of Explosion at Powder Plant is Occurring Today.

Pleasant Prairie, Wis., March 11.—Those persons who remained by the ruins of their homes after the destructive explosion which wrecked the Dupont Powder Mills, are facing suffering and hunger and but for the provisions sent from surrounding towns there would have been a wholesale trekking.

Few women remain in the town, and there is not so much as a cookstove left after the blow off to prepare any food. The destruction was complete and in many cases the sufferers are in no financial condition to rebuild.

Fragments of the body of F. S. Thompson, the one man killed, were found yesterday forenoon in a pond half a mile from the glaze mill where he met his death.

A jury was impaneled by the Coroner and the preliminary hearing was continued until today to obtain attendance of enough witnesses to fix the cause of the explosion.

One of the first actions yesterday of the residents was toward the elimination of the menace of powder works from the county. Indignation meetings at which this demand was voiced were held in Pleasant Prairie and Kenosha. The effort to safeguard their homes is to be pushed in the present session of the Wisconsin Legislature, according to plans of residents. The question of liability for the damages inflicted is a serious one with the victims.

There have been nine explosions in a years at the powder works, but no disaster has compared with the present one in the extent of damages inflicted, although more lives have been lost. In the explosion of 1900 seven men were killed while two died later of their injuries.

That the explosion started in the glaze mill, where Thompson was killed, and that its cause was defective working of the machinery in the delicate process of putting the last high explosive finish on giant powder was indicated by the statement of Engineer Joseph Flynn, himself seriously injured, who was an eye witness of the initial explosion.

Engineer Flynn's statement of the cause was supported by that of Dr. A. J. Lowe of Pleasant Prairie, who has frequently inspected the glaze mill since its installation, and is thoroughly conversant with its workings.

Both assert that the heating and friction of the powder in the hot air and steam-jacketed cylinders of the glazing machinery brings the explosive to a precarious condition.

A section of one of the shattered glazing cylinders, six feet long, was hurled two miles and crashed through the roof of the two-story building opposite the railroad station occupied by H. A. King as a general store.

The cylinder made an eight-foot gap in the roof of the building and, passing through the structure, was buried in the cellar. It was generally believed last night after communication had been established with the farm houses in the danger zone that Engineer Flynn is the only person seriously injured.

Superintendent Brady declared he had accounted for every person who might have been at work in the danger zone, and that only one, Thompson, was dead.

The financial loss to the company is roughly estimated at $500,000, but the total loss due to the explosion is too widely distributed even to be estimated.

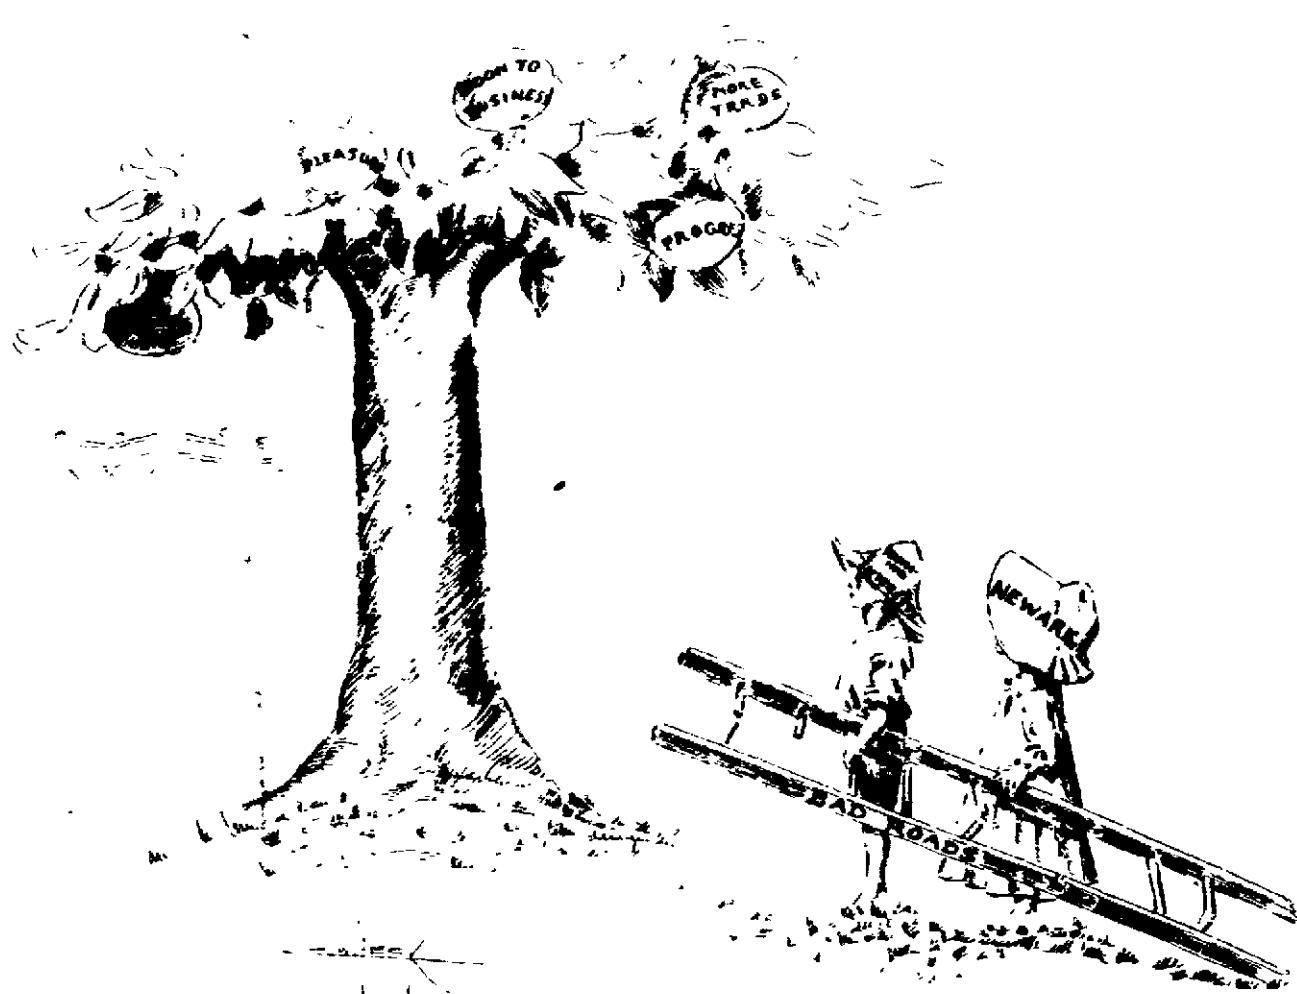

Householders in Pleasant Prairie say that their houses have been weakened by previous explosions. Powder men today began flooding the ruins in order to safeguard the community against further explosions.

Contradictory estimates were given as to the quantity of powder left in the danger zone. Western Superintendent Brumstead declared there is a quantity in the process of manufacture in several of the small buildings. Superintendent Brady asserted that one small magazine still is standing.

A storehouse about half a mile from the main group is filled with dynamite. Sheriff Stahl insists that from five to eight carloads of loose black powder remains in a building that was unroofed by the explosion.

The village was invaded yesterday by curiosity seekers and others, and, asserting that looting and vandalism was beginning, Sheriff Stahl impressed

THEY BOTH WANT THE FRUIT.

The Good Roads movement strikes a responsive chord with the farmer and city man alike. One is as much interested in good roads as the other. They will derive equal benefit from good roads. The Advocate cartoonist, Mr. C. W. Heck, has aptly pictured the situation—the Farmer interests and Newark vainly endeavoring to reach for the fruit with a broken ladder. Give them a "Good Roads" ladder and Progress, Boon to Business, Pleasure, No Mud, More Trade, and all the other good varieties can be quickly gained. The Licking county farmers, the Licking county commissioners and the business men of Newark are working together now to build a new "ladder."

a hundred deputies and cleared the village. Three holes marked the sites where three of the magazines had stood. The holes were each more than 50 feet across and as deep. One had broken into a spring and was half full of water.

PRISONERS IN STEEL CAGES SIT IN COURT

WITH LINE OF SOLDIERS TO GUARD THEM AT THEIR TRIAL FOR MURDER.

Thirty-Nine Members of Most Feared Criminal Class in Italy Charged With Cruel Crimes.

Viterbo, Italy, March 11.—Three steel-lined prison vans, surrounded by mounted carabinieri, brought the 39 members of the Camorra to court for the opening of their trial for murder. The prisoners passed in through files of troops and were at once placed within a steel cage in the court room. A line of soldiers with loaded rifles sit around the cage, and only their lawyer is allowed to speak to the prisoners. The town is swarming with members of the Camorra, the most feared criminal class in Italy. The jury panel made a desperate effort to escape jury service, each man offering a dozen excuses, most of them being overruled by Judge Divana. It is admitted that a jury to convict is almost an impossibility. The prisoners are confident of acquittal, despite a report that one of them had turned state's evidence and made a full confession.

A jury was finally secured late in the afternoon. The prosecution stated that it expects to prove the man killed Cucullo and his wife and also killed Detective Petracino of New York, who was murdered in Palermo. Several of the prisoners made confessions to priests before being taken to the court house and received the communion.

Gennaro Abatomaglie, who turned state's evidence some time ago, is kept confined in a separate cage to prevent attempt upon his life.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP QUESTION

Will be Voted on by Ohio Legislators Next Tuesday

IMPORTANT MEASURES

Will be Singled Out by the House and Made Special Orders.

Columbus, March 11.—Having endorsed the principle of the initiative and the referendum for municipalities by passing the Crosser bill, the house of representatives next Tuesday will vote upon the question of municipal ownership of public utilities. This decision was reached yesterday after a sharp rally precipitated by the effort of the opposition to prevent a special order of business being made of it.

The bill was reported by the committee on cities without recommendation. At once the author, Representative Myer Geleerd of Toledo, moved to set it for third reading on next Tuesday at 2 p. m. Objections were made by the conservatives and Speaker Vinson ordered a division. The motion carried by the close vote of 39 to 38. This presages a hard fight.

The bill simply provides that the question of municipal ownership may be submitted to the voters of any community, but that it shall require a two-thirds majority to carry the proposition. The street railway franchises in Toledo are expiring, and Mayor Brand Whitlock is agitating the question of the city taking over the properties.

Singling Out Big Bills.

The house devoted much of its time to selecting important bills and making them special orders ahead of the multitude of measures of little value, dozens of which crowd the calendar. Preference was given to the Langdon bill revising the state tax commission law, which was set ahead of the Geleerd bill for the same day. In addition to restoring the old Willis tax rate upon corporation capitalization, it lengthens the terms of the tax commissioners and makes stringent provisions as to injunction suits designed to impede the operation of the sections relating to collecting taxes and requiring reports.

Conservation Measure Passed.

Under a suspension of the rules the house took up and passed the Kilpatrick bill authorizing the state board of agriculture and township assessors to collect and disseminate information concerning tenancies, farms, waste lands, failures of crops and the like. This is to be sent out in the form of bulletins to agricultural bodies and farming centers. It also passed the Bell bill authorizing the state board of public works to grant permission to cities to erect lift bridges over canals and to narrow the bed for that purpose.

Tax Assessor Measure.

Among the new bills offered was that of Representative Whitmore of Akron, which was a duplicate of that of Senator John E. Todd of Columbus, presented in the upper branch. It is the tax assessor measure for which the Republicans will stand as against the Democratic bill offered by Representative Edwards of Cleveland. It continues in office the present boards of review as city boards of assessors and permits the appointment by the tax commission of county assessors out of lists prepared by the county auditors.

The Democratic bill provides for the appointment in each county by the tax commission of a deputy tax commissioner, who is to take over all the duties now imposed on taxing officials.

Oregon Plan Up to House.

Having twice been defeated in the Ohio senate, the Oregon plan for choosing United States senators yesterday made its appearance in the house of representatives. The bill was offered by Representative Cha. Wyman of Shelby county, whose vote in the Democratic caucus nominate Atlee Pomerene. It is a copy of the Stockwell bill, which is resting, safe.

MONEY MISSING SUSPECT MURDER

Huntington, W. Va., March 11.—The mangled body of John F. Bowen was found on the N. and W. tracks early today with two bullet holes in the head. John D. Kermit, the last man seen with Bowen has been apprehended for killing him. Bowen cashed some orders amounting to $500 a few hours before his body was found, but his money is missing.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nervous system and continued.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It cures indigestion, flatulency, ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the system. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to show upon it but "just as good."

It is non-secret, non-dishonorable and has a record of forty years of cures. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures.

If you want a book that tells all about women's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 present stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a copy of his new thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, 1910, 10th edition, in paper covers, in handsome cloth-binding, 51 stamps. ### NEWARK TEAMS WON AND LOST

IN THE ANNUAL DEBATE FRIDAY NIGHT IN TRIANGULAR CONTEST.

The Question Was Given a Foreable Presentation Here and at Mt. Vernon.

The third annual debate of the Newark Debating League was held Friday evening. Mr. Vernon was the affirmative, and the negative was given by Mr. Jones. The debate was given a foreable presentation here and at Mt. Vernon.

About 1000 people filled the high school auditorium last evening, and the debating teams took their places. The audience was very much interested in the debate, and the stage was banked with flowers.

The question was: "The United States Should Adopt a System of Income Tax with an Exemption of Incomes Below $2000 a Year." The affirmative was given by Mr. Vernon, and the negative by Mr. Jones.

The judges were Judge Kinkaid of the common pleas court of Columbus, Hon. Fred C. Reeder, attorney, Columbus, and Judge Samuel T. Black of the probate court, Columbus.

The decision was given by a vote of 2 to 1 favoring Mr. Vernon.

At Zanesville, Newark was successful in their home town.

These decisions leave Newark a total of four debates won out of six held and gives them a receiving total of 12 votes out of 18 cast, since the debates began.

A pleasing program was given in connection with the debate, consisting of music by the high school orchestra and faculty quartet and songs and yells by the pupils.

Self Reliance.

The spirit of self help is the root of all genuine growth in the individual, and, exhibited in the lives of many, it constitutes the true source of national vigor and strength. Help from without is often enfeebling in its effects, but help from within invariably invigorates. Whatever is done for men or classes to a certain extent takes away the stimulus and necessity of doing for themselves, and where men are subjected to overguidance and overgovernment the inevitable tendency is to render them comparatively helpless.—Samuel Smiles.

"But has your church no missionaryaries to send among these people?" was the quick rejoinder.—Boston Transcript.

It secured in the box of the committee on privileges and elections of the senate. The measure in general has the endorsement of Governor Harmon but he was unable to induce the conservative senators to withdraw their opposition. It is the purpose of the progressives to have the lower house pass the Wyman bill and then once more put it up to the senators to act. Those who are managing the fight for the bill say that it will have a decisive majority, as many Republicans are outspoken in their support of the plan. Representative Wyman is a head of the elections committee of the house, which insures favorable action upon the new bill. As matters now stand in the senate the leaders of the factions, Stockwell of Cleveland and Dore of Seneca, have each had their bill defeated, and honor are easy.

LEGISLATURE

WONDERFUL CURE OF SCALP DISEASE

Hair Came Out in Patches, Goodhair Soap Brought Prompt Relief.

"I have had Eczema on my scalp for twenty years. Have doctored with several doctors, but with no permanent good results. The first time I used Goodhair Soap my hair came out in patches as large as a silver half dollar. I was scared and thought I wouldn't have any hair if I continued to use the soap. I was told it was only the dead hairs that had come away, and I continued to use the soap, and now, after three months, all those bald spots are covered with a good growth of hair. It is better than ever. I have no Eczema, and my scalp never itches. Yours respectfully, HENRY STEFFER, Utica, Ohio."

Confidential Agent of the Madero Party Makes Statement

Washington, March 11.—Submitting the case of the Mexican revolutionists to the "conscience of the free American people," Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez, authorized confidential agent of the Madero party today wrote the following for the United Press: (Copyright, 1911, by the United Press.)

By Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez. We have not the slightest fear in respect to the alleged purpose of the government of the United States to intervene in the present struggle in Mexico. In the first place this government knows full well that a vast majority of the Mexican people are unalterably opposed to a further continuance of the Diaz regime and the "system" which it represents. We have absolute faith that the United States under no circumstances would intervene to prevent this vast majority from executing its popular will.

If there exists any menace to life or property that menace has been created by General Diaz himself, for as every one knows the revolutionary party has taken particular pains to protect all non-combatants, particularly foreigners and their property.

They have even gone so far as to pay in coin for quartermaster and commissary supplies, which they have been forced to seize and you have yet to hear of a single American citizen who has been molested by our troops. If this government believes that chaos and anarchy are imminent in Mexico it may be said with certainty that this condition will only arise when one tumultuous outbreak demands the construction of the "system." All movements of the revolutionary columns and all spontaneous uprisings on the part of the people are, and will continue to be directed toward this end alone. All they desire is the elimination of Diaz, the right to popular suffrage, and no more re-elections.

In regard to creating a human military chain along the Mexican frontier from coast to coast, composed of American troops in order to prevent alleged violations of a neutrality law, it may surprise you to know that our forces have received no ammunition of war from the United States for a very considerable period, and do not expect to receive any in the future. We now have our own means of manufacturing and loading cartridges and as we have an ample supply of smokeless powder and small arms, we really have no necessity for further material of this sort with which to continue the war. We submit our case to the conscience of the free American people, who will certainly never sympathize with a grafting oligarchy as against a people struggling for the rights guaranteed them by their constitution.

Egg Rolls. Egg rolls call for one quart of flour mixed with one teaspoonful each of salt and sugar and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. In this rub three table-spoonfuls of shortening. Add two eggs well beaten, and mix with a cupful of milk and as much more milk as may be needed to make a soft dough. Roll out, cut in two inch strips then into fingers, lay slightly apart on greased pans, brush each with a little beaten egg and bake in a quick oven.

Yorkshire Pudding. As a substantial accompaniment to roast beef we have a Yorkshire pudding. To make this allow for six eggs, one heaping cupful of sifted flour and one teaspoonful of salt. Beat the eggs together until light, add them gradually to the flour and salt and beat until smooth. By degrees add sufficient milk to reduce the mixture to the consistency of a rather thin cream. Forty minutes before the meat is done skin out most of the fat in the pan, strain in the batter and return to the oven. Baste two or three times with a little of the hot drippings. When done cut the pudding into squares and use it as a garnish round the beef.

The demand for this well-known herb for this purpose has been so great that one manufacturer has taken advantage of the fact, and has placed on the market an ideal "sage tea," containing sulphur, a valuable remedy for dandruff and scalp rash, and irritations. Most of the prominent people of the city were connected with the exhibit, many being placed on the various committees. Miss Emma Spencer has in her possession a catalogue of this loan, which is a neat booklet, and contains a list of the exhibits and the names of all the committees. The president was Benjamin Franklin, and the vice presidents were Mrs. W. C. Lyon, Mrs. Hamill, Mrs. E. Nichols and Mrs. T. J. Davis. The executive committee was made up of D. E. Stevens, chairman, and J. C. Hamilton, Mrs. Joseph Wallace, M. W. Comstock, Miss Laura Jones, Mrs. Patton, John Effe, J. R. Davies, J. K. Kuchendorf. The secretaries were Rev. O. J. Nave, Miss Libbie Sprague, Miss Hattie Jones, and the treasurers, J. M. Maylone and L. D. Bartholomew.

There were committees on manuscripts, books, coins, lace, jewelry paintings and engravings, ceramics, decoration, natural history, geology curiosities, music and entertainment. The list of exhibits as catalogued contained several hundreds of articles listed under each of these committees and some of these things are on exhibition at the present loan. The affair was most successful and much money was credited to the benefit of the church.

Heart and Home Talks

by Barbara Boyd

A Woman and Her Youth.

A RECENT magazine article tells of a woman of forty who finds a photo of herself taken at twenty, and in the first illuminating glance at it, is horrified at the changes that have taken place in her in twenty years that have passed. She carries the photograph to her room, props it in front of her mirror, and proceeds to take stock of herself. She does not pass an altogether happy hour. But it does her good. She goes to her physician to find how she may remedy the blemishes that she has carelessly let time thrust upon her.

There is no need for a woman to lose all the charm of her youth. Madame Sarah Bernhardt, now touring this country, is proof of this. At 67, her voice, her gestures, her figure, her step, have all the charm and grace of a young girl's. But most women let the graces of youth slip from them, and then when gone, make frantic efforts to regain them.

With many women there seems to be a settled notion that with the coming of age must come certain signs of age. They accept the fact, with all the resignation they can muster. But much of this idea is untrue. Certain signs of age cannot be avoided, but many can be altogether, and others prevented from making their appearance until much later than is usually supposed.

The trouble is that with the coming of years, women slip into indolent habits. They are not alive all over as they were when young. If they will keep themselves physically and mentally young, age cannot find a foothold. Bernhardt is as alive as a young girl. She is interested in all the things of the day. She hasn't let her body get lazy. She has kept it right up to the mark, and so though she is 67, she does not look it, nor does she feel it. The woman whose photograph was a shock to her had let herself get lazy. She had kept up, to some extent, mentally; but she had let her body slip into indolent habits. She was getting stout, her hair was turning gray, her back becoming stooped, she couldn't go upstairs without puffing and blowing. Some of these things could have been prevented entirely; some could have been held at bay much longer, as her physician told her. Under his directions, she immediately went to work to remedy them. But she will have a hard fight. How much better to have kept herself in trim as she went along.

And this is what a woman should do. Youth is a desirable thing. And the matter of looks is not the most important part, though this is worth while. But it is the spirit of youth that makes for joy in the world, and a woman should hold fast to this. She will be the happier for it, so will those about her. And by retaining her youthful looks as far as possible, by holding fast to the joyous spirit of youth, by combining with this the experience and ripened judgment that come with the passing years, she can make herself a most delightful person.

Read the label and make sure that your baking powder is not made from alum.

THE LODGES

Masonic.

At the regular meeting of Center Star Lodge, F. and A. M., of Johnstown, this week, the M. D. degree was conferred on two candidates, Seth Tharp and J. T. Moran. A large number of the brothers were in attendance and after the work those present repaired to the dining room, where the stewards had prepared a fine banquet. After this had been partaken of, several very interesting speeches were made by the visiting brothers present and also by a number of the brothers of Center Lodge.

Odd Fellows.

The regular meeting of Newark Lodge, No. 623, I. O. O. F., was held Monday evening, with a good attendance of the members. Considerable business of importance to the lodge was transacted, and the third degree was conferred on one candidate. At the meeting to be held next Monday evening the first degree will be conferred on a number of candidates and it is the wish that all the members attend this meeting.

Knights of Pythias.

The Pythian Sisters of Alexandria Temple, at their last meeting entertained visiting sisters from Johnstown and Croton Temples and a number from Alexandria Lodge, No. 704, in honor of District Deputy Grand Chief Mrs. Silbernagel of Columbus. At 8 o'clock the lodge was called to order by Most Excellent Chief Mrs. Orpha Colville. After the regular business for the evening, five applicants were initiated into the mysteries of the order in the presence of about 20 Sister Knights and 45 Sisters. The remainder of the evening was most enjoyably spent in social conversation, during which an elegant two course luncheon was served. At a late hour the crowd disbanded and returned to their various homes.

The Page rank was conferred upon two candidates at White Cross lodge in Johnstown, and the Esquire rank was conferred upon one candidate at the last regular meeting of the lodge, in the presence of some 75 Knights.

It was a splendid meeting. A good supper was served after work. Several more of the brothers presented their books to the lodge. Other brothers are urged to bring their books. As soon as enough books are on hand a case will be provided. Some half dozen good magazines were subscribed for by the committee in charge, so good reading matter for those so inclined is assured. Let the good work continue. There will be work tonight in the Esquire rank.

Four applications for membership were received at the last regular meeting of Roland Lodge last Tuesday evening, and the Esquire rank was conferred on one Page. The Esquire rank will again be conferred next Tuesday evening. On Thursday evening a number of our members visited Champion Lodge in Columbus and saw the First or Page rank conferred in full amplified form on 16 candidates. The work was excellent and all were well repaid for making the trip. The leading performer for the Columbus lodge was John Strope, who is now located in Newark, and never misses a meeting of the Newark lodges.

Red Men.

Minnewa Tribe, No. 52, Improved Order of Red Men, met in regular session on Friday night with all Chiefs and a good turn out of the members present. The visiting relief chiefs reported on the sick members and reported all doing well. The First Warrior in scouting the forest found four adoption degree brothers to be advanced to the Warriors degree. The Degree team being ready, the four brothers were admitted and instructed in the mysteries of the Warriors degree. On the next regular meeting night there will be work in the Chiefs' degree and a good turn out of the Chiefs and members is desired. The Great Chief of Records report for the business transacted during the year 1910 shows that Minnewa Tribe to be the sixth largest tribe in the state which is certainly a good showing.

Royal Arcanum.

The members and officers of Bayard Taylor Council, No. 221, met last Monday evening with a full attendance. A regular old-time meeting was held, in which each member present took an active part. A very nice program was rendered by the entertainment committee after the lodge work was finished. Several members from Granville lodge were present.

A meeting of unprecedented importance is expected to be held next Monday evening and a full attendance is desired. The Royal Arcanum is one of the standard, growing lodges of the state, ever increasing and always up to date.

Come and see the degree team in action.

I. O. O. F.

Olive Branch lodge No. 34 held its regular weekly meeting Tuesday evening, February 7. The regular business was transacted. Owing to the bad weather there was a small turnout.

Brothers, the third degree will be conferred on four candidates, Tuesday evening, March 14. Every member is requested to be present on that date. Lunch will be served. Visiting brothers are cordially invited.

Modern Woodmen.

Monday night a red letter night for the Modern Woodmen of America when Buckeye Camp, 3224 of Zanesville visited Cedar Camp and put on the work. The Zanesville visitors came up on a special car to the number of 100 and after the opening ceremony took charge of the meeting. The Esquire retired and found in waiting to be adopted Levi Shaw, Fred H. Rogers, W. G. Lidbom, C. S. Strickler, G. W. Conklin, Emmet Ross, J. A. Pfeiffer, H. H. Shipp, E. L. Brokaw, Paul Queen, William Johnson, Charles Shaw, C. E. Huber, Lyman Cochran, Clarence Shaw, Ross Rugg, J. O. Walker, Fred W. Atherton, who were admitted and adopted as members of Cedar Camp. The work of initiation was put on by the Zanesville officers and team in a very impressive manner and was heartily applauded by the members present.

The visitors were met at the Interurban station by the Forester Team of Cedar Camp and escorted to the lodge room. The speaking parts of the officers were very good and the movements of the team in the ceremony of adoption was very pleasing to look at and Chief Forester Morrison deserves a great credit in having such an excellent team. The two camps on Monday night represented a membership of over 2,600 Woodmen, 1,500 of which are members of Cedar Camp. After the ceremony of adoption was over an oyster supper was served to 350 members. The Zanesville visitors departed on their special car at 11:30 wishing Cedar Camp many more pleasant meetings.

On Tuesday night, March 14, the Prize State Banner will be presented to Cedar Camp by Supreme National Lecturer, Charles E. Whelan of Madison, Wis., at the High School Auditorium. This banner was held by Cedar Camp during the years 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907 and 1908 for being the largest camp in the state of Ohio but in 1908 the plan was changed and the camp adopted the most beneficial members during any one year received the banner. Cedar Camp lost the banner to Dayton Camp, No. 2526, who held the banner for the year 1909 and Akron Camp No. 424 held the banner for the year 1910 and again after three years the banner comes back to Cedar Camp, the Camp which produced the most adoptions during the year and still has the largest membership in the state of Ohio.

D. of A.

Banner Council No. 101 D. of A., met in regular session on Tuesday evening with a good attendance. Three applications for beneficial members were presented. Seeing circle meets with Mrs. Murphy, 87 Mound street, Tuesday evening, March 14th.

Haymakers.

The next regular meeting of Minnewa Haymakers Association No. 52 1-2 will be held on Tuesday night, March 21, at which time a class of candidates will be taken through the mysteries of making hay. The regular meeting comes on March 14, but owing to the Eagles and Woodmen having a big meeting on that date it was decided to change the meeting to one week later, as many of the members belong to both organizations. The Boss Driver or reports that here will be quite a class and all members are requested to be at the Hayloft early to go in the parade. An invitation was extended to the National State Chief Haymaker, George Dardinger, and the National Collector of Straws, Henry Olmhausen.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Newark Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Newark readers.

Amos Frey, Toboso, Newark, Ohio, says: "I have been entirely free from kidney trouble since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me over eleven years ago. I suffered severely from pains through the small of my back and they were always aggravated by the least exertion. If I sat in one position for any length of time, my back became so sore that I could hardly arise. I obtained several remedies but I continued to grow worse until I was in a serious condition. I finally read of Doan's Kidney Pills and as they were highly recommended for complaints similar to mine, I procured a box. They lived up to representations, going directly to the seat of my trouble and ridding me of all pain. I have always recommended Doan's Kidney Pills highly and I deem it a pleasure to do so."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Mrs. Anna C. Hyde. Mrs. Hattie Hamilton. Mrs. Anthony Rauch.

Gained 18 Pounds. Mrs. Hattie Hamilton, 913 Glen Ave., Latonia, Ky., writes:

"I have taken two bottles of Peruna and commenced on the third one. I did not really need the third one, but thought it best to take another bottle.

"I have always weighed 102 pounds, but since I began taking Peruna I weigh 120, for the first time in all my life, and I am now 33 years old. Your medicine has surely done me a great deal of good and I have recommended it to several others who have begun taking it.

"My mother, who is 76 years old, had grown so weak that she could scarcely walk. She took two bottles of Peruna and is fleshier and is looking well."

Peruna Their Family Medicine.

Mrs. Anna C. Hyde, 712 E. Yamhill street, Portland, Oregon, Vice President Literary and Educational Organization of New Hampshire, writes:

"I am pleased to endorse Peruna as an all-round good family medicine, and one that is safe to give children. I give it to mine at the least suggestion of a cold and take it myself to build up my strength and nerves."

"My sister, who is living with me, uses Peruna, too, and she is loud in its praises."

Constipation, Torpid Liver.

Mrs. Anthony Rauch, Cor. Lawn and N. Sandusky Ave., Bucyrus, O., writes:

"I was suffering from obstinate constipation and torpid liver, when I took your advice and purchased six bottles of Peruna and Manalin. When I had taken only one bottle I felt much better, and since I have taken two more bottles I feel entirely well, but I will continue taking the medicine for a short time to make sure of my cure."

"I think Manalin is one of the finest remedies for constipation that I ever tried. I will never be without it. It has made me so strong. I can do a day's work and never tire. I am so glad I do not get those dizzy spells any more. I haven't had one since I took your medicine."

"I cannot thank you enough for what your medicine has done for me. All sick people should give it a fair trial."

Had Catarrh of Kidneys.

Mrs. Gus H. Carlson, Box 201, Ortonville, Minn., writes:

"I had catarrh of the kidneys and bladder. I have taken Peruna until now, and I do not think I need to take it any longer."

"I feel well and my tongue is clear and I have no bitter taste in my mouth. I am very thankful for Peruna."

ENDS STOMACH TROUBLE AND INDIGESTION

Take your sour, out of order stomach—or maybe you call it indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapensin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangule and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the Digestive organs become weak; there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in the limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas, or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapensin.

* COMMUNICATED *

THE SUNDAY MAIL AGITATION.

Dear Editor: The above subject has been so much agitated in public print, in private conversation, and in the pulpit, that it has become necessary to say some things not often mentioned by either resolution, by the pulpit, nor yet by curb-stone orator.

Should the carriers have the Sunday off? Yes, if they want it so. If not, then one man nor one set of men has no legal nor any moral right to compel another man or another set of men to refrain from civil pursuits on that day. Personal liberty to do or not to do in matters of this kind, is a certain inalienable right, the enjoyment of which may not be rightfully invaded by others. Hence, if the carriers and other postoffice employees want the full day off on Sunday, let them adjust the matter with the proper authorities and not accept the "good offices" (pressure may be the better word) of the ministerial association, the trades unions, or whoever it may be. If it is merely a matter of resting one day out of seven, they surely can obtain that whenever they need it. If it is a matter of religious scruple with these men and women, they will soon find a way to regulate the matter without public assistance. If the government is not willing to concede to the demands of these public servants, they have the same recourse that the employees of any company or corporation have—that of resignation. God would honor and provide for the man who for the sake of conscience suffers the loss of position and of income.

Some are boldly advocating the national Sunday law to cover these cases. The law would, of course, compel postmasters as well as other employers to allow the Sunday for rest, or recreation, or pleasure, or devotion, or for whatever the whims of the individual demanded. The most mischievous phase of this law would be that it is a religious measure to protect and promote a religious holiday which is, to say the least, unconstitutional. Even if there are exceptions made for those who observe another day, it can only be said that these exemptions are toleration and no liberty-loving citizen wants to be merely tolerated in the practice of his religion. Then there are those who are as good citizens as others, and who support the government by blood and by means, and they observe no day. Is it the province of this or any other government to compel them to observe a religious institution? If it is right to compel one church rite, then would it not be just as consistent for the church to call for a law to compel the acceptance of baptism, of the Lord's Supper, or any other observance of the church? And if the precedent is once established, how long would it be before it would be unlawful for a man to kiss his wife on Sunday, as in good old Puritan days? These questions are worth thinking over and if a thorough consideration is given them, it is my opinion that the demand for a religious law in this community will rapidly die out.

So, Mr. Editor, suppose we allow the postoffice employees to fight their own battles for a weekly rest day, and not drag so many serious and grave questions into the controversy.

GRANVILLE FARMERS WANT BETTER ROADS

Are Taking Great Interest in Movement to That End—News of the College Town.

Granville, O., March 11.—Farmers throughout this section of country are taking an almost unprecedented interest in the movement for better roads. Those counties which have fairly good roads have learned by experience of their worth and value and want more of the same kind. Those which know not the advantage of travel worthy highways, want to get in on the game, and they want to get in quick. The Ohio Good Roads Federation, composed of farmers and business men, with offices in Columbus, will appreciate helpful suggestions and will be glad to give anyone interested such information as he may desire.

The regular services will be held at St. Luke's Episcopal church Sunday, conducted by the Rector, Rev. A. Ramsey. Morning service at 10 o'clock and evening service at 4 o'clock. Subject for morning sermon, "A Peculiar People." Sunday school at 11 o'clock. Subject for afternoon discourse, "How to Get Rich and Stay Rich." Lenten services will be held Wednesday and Friday.

Mrs. Martin L. Bricker, who was so severely burned about the head and hands a few days ago, by an explosion of natural gas at her home, is getting along nicely and it is thought she will make a rapid recovery.

E. H. Chittenden, D. U. '09, of Erie, Pa., is visiting in Granville for a few days.

Some of our neighboring schools have manual labor departments in which the boys are taught to make things. Wouldn't it be a good thing to have some of the Granville boys make bird boxes for their homes, and for our Sugar Loaf Park. The material would cost scarcely anything, for storekeepers would donate dry goods boxes enough to make all the boxes necessary to house the entire bird population. There is no good reason why our boys should not get busy and make boxes for the birds, at the same time learning the use of tools.

Dr. E. W. Hunt, president of Denison University, who has been in the south for some time, arrived home on Saturday, being very much improved in health. He came through from New York and attended a meeting of the Central Ohio Schoolmasters in Columbus on Friday. Sunday night he will leave for Chicago to meet with the executive committee of the Northern Baptist convention.

Mrs. Schoonover and son, Oscar, left Saturday for Cleveland, O., where they will be for a short time, after which they expect to go to Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Little of Xenia, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Granville and vicinity for some days, have returned home.

Mt. Vernon High has a good basketball team, that is it is considered good for Mt. Vernon, and the members of the team have become so imbued with the fact that they are considered players that they came over to Granville in hope of taking a game from Denison.

Some are boldly advocating the national Sunday law to cover these cases. The law would, of course, compel postmasters as well as other employers to allow the Sunday for rest, or recreation, or pleasure, or devotion, or for whatever the whims of the individual demanded. The most mischievous phase of this law would be that it is a religious measure to protect and promote a religious holiday which is, to say the least, unconstitutional. Even if there are exceptions made for those who observe another day, it can only be said that these exemptions are toleration and no liberty-loving citizen wants to be merely tolerated in the practice of his religion. Then there are those who are as good citizens as others, and who support the government by blood and by means, and they observe no day. Is it the province of this or any other government to compel them to observe a religious institution? If it is right to compel one church rite, then would it not be just as consistent for the church to call for a law to compel the acceptance of baptism, of the Lord's Supper, or any other observance of the church? And if the precedent is once established, how long would it be before it would be unlawful for a man to kiss his wife on Sunday, as in good old Puritan days? These questions are worth thinking over and if a thorough consideration is given them, it is my opinion that the demand for a religious law in this community will rapidly die out.

So, Mr. Editor, suppose we allow the postoffice employees to fight their own battles for a weekly rest day, and not drag so many serious and grave questions into the controversy.

POLICE COURT

Perry Robinson was arrested Friday afternoon for drunkenness, and a search of his "trunk," which was a large cigar box, revealed a safety razor, rubber stamping outfit and other articles which the police believed he had stolen. He told Mayor Ankele and the officers that if leniency was shown him he would take them to where a bit of burglars' tools were hidden, to be used to pull off a job, but when they got there, the tools, if they had been there, had disappeared. Nothing further was developed in the case.

And out what the people want and give it to them," said a philosopher. "And you will soon become famous." These are the ways of discussing the patronage of the local corporation, making agreements, then, and Edward Doherty has made a direct appeal to these facts and his Virginia Stock Company will not only be sound and clean, a business proposition, but also a stage management, a social establishment, and a center where the people will find a definite and a definite from the social restrictions.

SCENE FROM "THE MAN ON THE BOX." AT THE AUDITORIUM THEATRE, FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 17, 1906.

The Man on the Box.

On Friday, March 17, at the Auditorium theatre, local theatregoers will have an opportunity to see Harold McGrath's comedy, "The Man on the Box," with John Meehan in the leading role. The play is a delightful comedy. Briefly, the story is as follows: Robert Wadsworth, late of the army, thinks he is going to play a practical joke on his sister. He masquerades as a commandant, dresses her wildly home from a battle and places her as she steps in terror from the carriage. But he isn't his sister, it is Betty Amesley, a student.

The Merry Widow.

Among the many good things the management of the Auditorium had to offer the patrons of the Auditorium theatre this season upon his arrival in the city early in November was the promise of the most varied of all light operas, "The Merry Widow" and the winter in being over the bookings for the balance of the season, was somewhat surprising to see that on an early date we were to be favored with the return of last season's most successful production.

The Thief

One of the big things announced as appearing at the Auditorium in the near future is the presentation of the play, "The Thief." The theme of this story is an unusual one in that the woman marries a man unable to furnish for her the luxurious accommodations of life, but this man aims to win a woman with these things. The wife, without her husband's knowledge, steals these things from her wealthy friends. The husband finally realizes his wife is a thief, and the big climax comes when the wife explains that it was to keep his love that she committed the crime.

Ornithine

Manager M. F. Bassett announces that the bill for next week will more than please the patrons of his theatre as it is made up of plenty of comedy, music and novelties. Judging from the way the past two bills have been received, Manager Bassett has secured the line of entertainment the people want. One of the features for next week will be Downey, Willard & Swain in a comedy playlet entitled "A Call on the Doctor." Manager Bassett says he is looking forward to this act being one of the best comedy sketches that has ever appeared in this city, as he has received a great report from the vaudeville theatre in Chicago, where the act was one of the hits of the season and the management could not pay enough about their show. In his house, O. G. Murray has secured him for his three best features, Frank & Swain as the Londoners, Frank & Swain as the Americans, and Downey, Willard & Swain as the Frenchmen. Manager Downey, as a surprise from Marko and Miss Charlotte Willard as a stammering old maid and a young

Flickers From the Footlights.

Louis Mann was vanquished by a crying baby at Fort Smith, Ark. where he was playing recently in "The Man Who Stood Still." The baby threw the audience into an uproar during the second act by its crying and its mother refused to leave the theatre. Mr. Mann stopped the play, announced that the money would be refunded at the box-office, and ordered the curtain rung down. Mr. Mann has decided to shelve "The Cheater," and gave the last performance of that play, probably for the season, at the close of his engagement in Memphis last Saturday. The scenery for "The Man Who Stood Still" was ordered by wire from New York.

The Leffler-Bratton company, owners of "The Newlyweds and Their Baby," musical show, today signed George H. Murphy to feature in a new musical show founded on McMan's cartoons, "Let George Do It" for next season. Mr. Murphy will be remembered by Newark theatre patrons as the exceptionally clever comedian, the German walker, with the NewYork show when it appeared here and this same company featuring Mr. Murphy appears at the Auditorium theatre for a return engagement soon.

"When Sweet Sixteen," one of the most engaging musical comedies that has visited Chicago this year is playing at the Chicago Opera house. The Victor Herbert scores are most tuneful.

from the general offerings of today and while it is not favored by some critics, seems to promise to the interest for some time, at least.

There is a movement on foot in New York City to pass an ordinance forbidding the use of profanity on a New York stage. The movement is instigated by many of the big local organizations and societies.

This is the last week of Forbes-Robertson's engagement at the Garrick theatre in Chicago in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back." This play proved exceedingly popular during its run and was the subject of conversation for the city.

Hazel Allen has been added to the cast of "The Hen Pecks" at the Broadway Theatre making her first appearance at the New York house on March 1 in the character of Verbena Peck, the wife of Henderson Peck.

Eddie Fox may go on the road again in "Mr. Hamlet of Broadway."

Amelia Bingham is to have a season in London. She has also a new play by a young American author, which she thinks will be a great success.

Langdon Mitchell, the author of Becky Sharp, has written a new four act comedy which Mrs. Fiske will produce in New York in the early spring. The play is a modern one and is said to be brilliantly written.

Edward Knoblauch, the author of William Faversham's comedy, "The Faun," left for London last week to assist Sir Beerbohn Tree to produce a new play from his pen. Mr. Knoblauch has the greatest comedy success now current on the London stage.

The Last Tribute

Abraham Lincoln in his Gettysburg address made immortal the men who fell. He paid an everlasting tribute to their memory. And You, you have Someone, passed now into Eternal Rest, whose memory you wish to perpetuate. But you will resort to other means than did Abraham Lincoln to do this. Perhaps you are considering the placing of a Memorial at the last Resting Place of a Loved One. If you are, you must in justice to this Sacred Memory select with the greatest care, the design, the material and the workmanship of this memorial.

There is beauty, durability and economy in every Memorial erected by us. We guarantee satisfaction.

On June 1, 1911, the Newark Monument Company moves into its new location in the building now being erected just across the East Main street bridge. On account of the risk in handling we wish to sell and erect before that time, all of our present stock of memorials. TO INSURE THEIR DISPOSAL, WE PROPOSE TO SELL THEM AT ABSOLUTE COST.

Your inspection of this work will be appreciated.
